

FEHVA

STUDENT PROGRAM

THE FESTIVAL FOR ARTISTS, ART LOVERS AND STUDENTS OF ART

23 - 31 May 2009 www.fehva.com P 02 6687 1623 E fehva@buttery.org.au

FRIDAY MAY 29 – 8.45AM

9.00 – 9.15 Introduction

Wendy Ramsay

Connecting artists, artworks, writers, curators and critics with audiences and ideas.

9.15 – 10.00 Everybody Watches: Encounters with video art

Dr Craig Judd

How do we read video art? Like a text, video art is a construction, in order to read text, one requires a knowledge and understanding of a set of abstract symbols, structures and an extensive and flexible vocabulary.

10.15 – 11.15am The real, the imagined and the scientifically possible

Patricia Piccinini

Patricia Piccinini works across a range of media including drawing, photography, sculpture and video. Her work tests the boundary between humans, other animals and biologically engineered species, then between the real, the imagined and the scientifically possible.
supported by Lismore Regional Gallery

11.30 – 12.30pm Exhibition insights: a conceptual framework crossroad

Tristan Sharp

An investigation of ArtExpress 09 at the Art Gallery of New South Wales through curatorial practices, key artworks and 2D, 3D and 4D expressive forms. Creating a dialogue between artworks and audiences and situating them in the context of a professional art gallery.
supported by Northern Rivers Echo

12.30 – 1.15pm Lunch

1.15 – 2.15pm Image and substance

Julie Rrap

Julie Rrap has investigated a diverse range of media in her art making practice, including photography, performance, installation and sculpture. Exploring the relationship between image and substance, the examination of history and gender.
with the generous support of Southern Cross University

2.30 – 3.30pm Creating a dialogue and presenting a point of view

John McDonald

Presenting a point of view and creating a dialogue between the practice of artists and their artworks, audiences and interests of the world.
with the generous support of Byron Bay Writers Festival - www.byronbaywritersfestival.org.au

Tickets: student $35 / teachers & parents $50 / adults. $75

Venue: Southern Cross University, Whitebrooke Theatre

